American Airports Corporation

Volume 4, Issue 2

FEBRUARY 2005

News & Announcements:

“...Departing Runway...”

In January, American Airports bade farewell and good luck to Richard Smith (EMT) and Jake Godown (POC), both airport managers. We wish Richard and Jake all the best, and hope they won't be strangers now that they have moved on. Assistant Managers Carl Holten and Ross Badgrow will be acting as Interim Airport Managers of their respective airports.

Cirrus Aircraft to Hold Event at WHP

Cirrus Aircraft, in conjunction with Whiteman Airport, will hold one of their world class demonstrations on March 25th and 26th. Whiteman Airport Manager, John Frymyer, expects Cirrus will invite over 5000 people to view, and possibly test, an SR20 or SR22. Visitors will have a chance get up close and personal with a flight simulator. Weather permitting, Rocky's Restaurant will host a BBQ offering hamburgers, chicken, carne asada, tri-tip and sodas. The fun gets under way on Friday, March 25th, from 1:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. and continues Saturday, March 26th, from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Bring the family. Bring your friends. Come out and join in on the fun.

Spotlight on... Construction & Development

Whiteman Airport

A new airport access road being constructed at Whiteman Airport is expected to be completed month, weather permitting. The new road will eventually provide for a safer vehicle traffic flow on the airport. Elsewhere on the airport, construction for a new hangar complex begins this month. The complex, being built by Argubright Construction, will consist of nine commercial-sized hangars and up to three commercial buildings. Vista Aviation will start construction of their new hangar complex and world class repair facility in the first quarter of this year. Vista will build about 39 nested T-hangars and a few large box hangars. By the end of this year, Whiteman Airport expects to have enough aircraft hangar capacity to meet demand. Contact Argubright Construction at 818-360-6029 or Vista Aviation at 818-896-6442 for more information and to find out how you can get on their hangar waiting lists.

Fox Airfield

A project to build new hangars at Fox Airfield is on schedule to begin this Spring. The highly anticipated project will increase hangar capacity by about 30 hangars, bringing the total up to just under 100 hangars on the field. Those interested in acquiring one of these hangars will find the contact information posted shortly on Fox Airfield's website at www.foxairfield.com. Contact information will also be available from the Airport Manager at 661-940-1709. Details on rental price are not yet known. However, the hangars will be rectangular, not T-shape. The sizes will be 42'x35', 40'x 50' and 50'x60'.

From the Manager:

Hangar Inspection & Maintenance

Our annual hangar inspection and preventative maintenance program will continue throughout the new year. Tenants will receive notice that we intend to enter their hangar about 30 days prior. Inspection schedules will also be posted in the newsletter. We appreciate your continued cooperation and assistance with our efforts to ensure all hangars are in good condition and being occupied in accordance with license agreements.

Based Aircraft Survey

We are trying to get an accurate count of the number of aircraft based on the airport. Counting aircraft on tie-downs is easy enough, but I need your help to get an accurate count of aircraft based in the hangars. I'm asking all hangar tenants to contact me via email, phone or in person regarding the number of aircraft in your hangar.

Tenant Record Audits

We are continuing to audit and update our tenant records. We may contact you to bring in a signed copy of your hangar or tie-down parking permit and a copy of your insurance. Please help us keep our records in order.
