Spotlight on... AAC Names New President

American Airports Corporation has recently announced the appointment of Edward Sause (left) as President. Mr. Sause, who formerly served as Chief Financial and Acquisition Officer, has assumed the role with the departure of Kris Thabit.

Prior to joining American Airports, Mr. Sause served as Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer of American Golf Corporation, and Chief Financial Officer of National Golf Properties. Mr. Sause has also served as an Audit Manager for Price Waterhouse, as well as Vice President and Controller for Columbia Pictures Television, Columbia Pictures' Motion Picture Division, Columbia Pictures International, and for the Entertainment Business Sector of The Coca-Cola Company. He is a trustee of the Museum of Flying in Santa Monica, California.

Kris Thabit served as AAC's President since 2003. Thabit, who remains a shareholder of American Airports, said, "I have worked with Ed for over 13 years, and he is an extremely competent and effective manager. He has an extensive amount of management and transactional experience in successful organizations, and I expect that AAC will continue to grow under his leadership." Thabit will continue to serve the Company in a consulting role.

Scott Wardle, Regional Director of Operations, will assume a higher level of responsibility for the day-to-day management of field operations.

AAC manages five airports in Los Angeles County and at Henderson Field Airport on Midway Atoll in the North-Central Pacific; and has FBOs in California, New York and Arkansas under the name of Supermarine.
